

Learning from Common Mistakes

Speaking Extensions

These extension exercises provide extra practice of the topics covered in the booklet, for use in class or with a partner.

Do I need to + verb or a verb + -ing after this verb?

Page 6

Speaking extension

Work with a partner. Ask and answer the questions in Exercise 3.

Do or make?

Page 7

Speaking extension

Work with a partner. Ask and answer the questions in Exercise 4.

When should I use have, pass, spend and take with time expressions?

Page 9

Speaking extension

Use the words in bold in the sentences in Exercise 4 to make new sentences which are true for you. Then compare your sentences with a partner.

When does a single letter change to a double letter?

Page 13

Speaking and writing extension

Work with a partner. Ask and answer the questions below. When you have finished, write a short paragraph about your partner.

1. Do you enjoy travelling? Why (not)?
 2. What are you hoping to do next weekend?
 3. What do you enjoy doing when you visit a strange city?
 4. What are you planning to do in the future?
- _____