IGCSE Biology

Second Edition

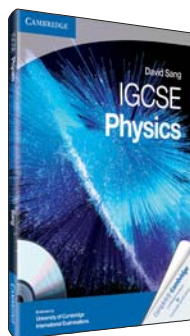

Mary Jones and Geoff Jones

This new second edition aids students and teachers alike in their preparation for the IGCSE exam. Written by an experienced teacher, examiner and trainer, the language is kept simple to increase accessibility for students for whom English is a second language. The Coursebook content has been revised and rearranged with high-quality colour illustrations that will appeal to all students.

New material is also included on the accompanying CD-ROM in response to specific needs highlighted by practising teachers. The addition of the teacher CD helps teachers to develop students' skills as well as their factual knowledge, with additional background reading, formative and summative assessment strategies, and suggested year plan for teaching. A workbook is also available.

Cambridge Contexts in Literature

Comparative and contextual study at A Level

Series Editor: Adrian Barlow

A series offering critical introductions to a range of literary topics and genres. Each volume has been carefully planned to help students evaluate the influence of literary, cultural and historical contexts on both writers and readers. A range of exciting new titles have been added to this popular and trusted series, including two with a focus on contemporary writing, to address the increased emphasis on recent literature for advanced level study.

The series provides:

- the background for placing texts within their literary, cultural and historical contexts
- opportunities to explore and evaluate different interpretations in literature
- a variety of approaches to active, imaginative and comparative study of texts and contexts
- ideas on how to write about the authors and their work in context
- assignments and key focus questions
- further reading lists, chronologies and glossaries of critical terms.
