

A Death in Oxford

Richard MacAndrew

Before reading

1. Look at the picture on the front cover. What can you see? What does it make you think about the story?
2. Look at the back cover. What kind of story is A Death in Oxford?
3. Look at the Contents on page 3. What do you notice about the way the chapters are written?
4. Look at the 'People in the story' on page 4. Work with a partner to put them into different groups – the same person can be in two groups.
5. Look at the map on page 5. Say where the different people in the story live or work (e.g. the Leighton Clinic is in Banbury Road).
6. Apart from the houses and offices what other places are marked on the map?
7. If you have the recording, listen to Chapter 1.

CHAPTER 1

1. What time does the story start?
2. Where is Inspector Frank Williams fifteen minutes after the start of the story and why?
3. Look at the picture on page 6. What is the room like? Write sentences like this: A chair is on the floor.
4. Read the story and say what isn't in the room.
5. Inspector Williams looks at a book and a letter. Why are they interesting? (Clues: look carefully at the receipt in the picture on page 9; what does a will tell us?)
6. Where are the police officers going at the end of the chapter?

CHAPTER 2

4. How do the three people feel about Janet Leighton's death?
5. What does Inspector Williams mean when he says the title of the book (Our Beautiful World) and 'Not really, is it?'

After reading

Choose some of these activities:

1. Either (a) write Inspector Frank Williams' police report about the case or (b) write the Oxford Post newspaper report about the case.
2. Imagine you are making a film of the book. Which famous actors are going to play the characters?
3. Choose either the picture on page 11 or the one on page 22 and write a complete description of it.
4. Write an email to the author, Richard MacAndrew, saying what you like and don't like about the story.
5. Write a description of Janet Leighton saying what she looks like and what she is like as a person.
6. Work with a partner. Act out the dialogue between Janet and Chris Leighton on pages 22–25, with actions. Add some more conversation if you need it. Perform it for others.
7. Make a quiz for other students about the story, e.g. using True/False questions.
8. Look carefully at the picture on pages 6–7 for one minute, then close the book and write down a list of everything there is in the room.
